

ARE YOU A NATIONAL OF HAITI?

DID YOU COME WITHIN A YEAR AFTER THE EARTHQUAKE? YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR “TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS”

Disclaimer: This advisory has been created by The Legal Aid Society, Immigration Law Unit. This advisory is not legal advice and does not substitute for the advice of an immigration expert.

You are eligible to apply for Temporary Protected Status (TPS) if you came to the U.S. from Haiti by crossing the border without inspection, or if you came on a visa and your authorized stay has expired or is still current. TPS would allow you to live and work legally in the U.S. for as long as Haiti is designated a TPS country.

In order to apply for TPS, you will need to prove three things: (1) that you are Haitian, (2) that you were continuously physically present in the US since July 23, 2011, and (3) that you have been residing in the U.S. continuously since January 12, 2011.

What documents will you need?

(1) Proof of Haitian Nationality

- Passport, or
- Birth certificate accompanied by photo identification, or
- Any national identity document from Haiti with your photo and/or fingerprint.

(2) Date of Entry

- Passport, or
- I-94 Arrival/Departure Record, or
- The kind of documents used to prove (3) Residence, below.

(3) Residence in U.S. on January 12, 2011:

- Employment records (pay stubs, W-2 Forms, IRS tax transcripts, state verification of filing state taxes, letters from your employer, letters from banks with whom you have done business).
- Rent receipts, utility bills (gas, electric, phone, etc.), receipts, or letters from companies showing dates you received service.
- School records (report cards, letters, etc.) from schools you or your children attended in the U.S., showing names of the schools and dates of attendance.
- Hospital or medical records for treatment you or your children received, showing name of the medical facility or physician and the dates of treatment or hospitalization.
- Attestations by churches, unions or other organizations, concerning your residence and identifying you by name.

- Other miscellaneous documents, such as birth certificates of children born in this country, dated bank transactions and wire transfers, letters, U.S. Social Security card, driver's license, Selective Service card, contracts, mortgages, insurance policies, etc.

(4) Two passport photos.

Criminal Bars to TPS

Individuals convicted of two misdemeanors or one felony are not eligible for TPS. Also, some single misdemeanor convictions could bar individuals from getting TPS, though sometimes the law allows U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to waive those bars. Anyone with a criminal arrest should speak to an immigration law expert before applying for TPS.

HOW TO GET YOUR CERTIFICATE OF DISPOSITION:

If you have ever been arrested or convicted of a crime, you should get a copy of the Certificate of Disposition. The Certificate will tell you what crime(s) you were charged with, what crime(s) you were convicted of, what date you were convicted, and the sentence you served. If you have been arrested more than once, you must get a separate Certificate for each incident.

Get a Certificate of Disposition for every arrest from the Court Clerk in the county where arrested. You should make sure you have the docket number (if you know it), date of arrest, photo ID, and $10 (exact change only).
